argues that after the rise of islam in the seventh century christian jewish relations cannot be understood apart from christian islamic relations shows that the outburst of antisemitism in western europe after 1000 was due primarily not to the deicide charge or socio economic rivalry but to the clash between christianity and islam in which jews were seen as dangerous allies of the muslims analyzes the anti jewish and anti muslim polemical literature the spanish inquisition too was motivated by racial and political motives in persecuting the conversos who were sincere converts the unprecedented mass conversions of the jews of spain and southern italy in the late middle ages can also be explained by the attraction of spanish christian culture with its strong muslim influence
